INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Jobs for Life, Inc. (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2017, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Jobs for Life, Inc. as of December 31, 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

JOBS FOR LIFE, INC.
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2017

1. Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A. Nature of Activities:

Jobs for Life, Inc. (the Organization) is a global nonprofit that equips Christ-centered churches and organizations to prepare unemployed or under-employed individuals for work and life. The Organization does this by providing resources, tools, and training containing all of the materials needed for churches and organizations to lead a JfL training class, which teaches timeless biblical principles concerning work and the ways those principles are applied in the marketplace. Through this training, men and women develop skills important to employers and become connected to a community of support to help them obtain meaningful employment. Additionally, participants experience life, a life filled with faith, confidence, and hope. The Organization hosts live and online training events, conferences and webinars. The Organization is headquartered in Raleigh, North Carolina.

B. Basis of Accounting:

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis. The accrual method records revenue when earned and expenses when incurred. As a result, receivables are recorded as assets, and obligations due are shown as liabilities.

C. Basis of Presentation:

The Organization follows standards for external financial reporting by not-for-profit organizations that requires its resources be classified for accounting and reporting purposes into three net asset categories according to externally imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Organization and changes therein may be classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets--Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets--Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Organization and/or the passage of time.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets--Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Organization. The Organization currently has no permanently restricted net assets.

D. Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, all highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents.

E. Accounts Receivable:

Accounts receivable are amounts due for training materials sold. Management deems all receivables to be collectible.

F. Pledges Receivable:

Pledges are recorded when the donor makes an unconditional promise to give. All pledges are expected to be collected within one year and an allowance is not deemed necessary.

1. Nature of Activities and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

G. Restricted and Unrestricted Revenue:

Contributions of cash and other assets, as well as grants, are recorded as increases in unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

All donor-restricted contributions and grants are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

H. Functional Allocation of Expenses:

The costs of providing the program and supporting services of the Organization have been summarized on a functional basis in the statements of functional expenses. Directly identifiable expenses are charged to programs and supporting services. Expenses related to more than one function are charged to programs and supporting services on the basis of estimates made by the Organization's management.

I. Accounting Estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

J. Property and Equipment:

Property and equipment are recorded at cost if purchased and fair market value if donated. Depreciation has been calculated by using the double declining balance method, which is an accelerated method of depreciation. The difference in depreciation expense from the straight-line method is not material. A capitalization threshold of $1,000 is utilized.

K. Income Tax Status:

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and is classified under Section 501(c)(3) as a public charity. The Organization has also been classified as an entity that is not a private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) and qualifies for deductible contributions provided in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). The Organization files information returns in the U.S. Federal jurisdiction and has its three previous tax years open to examination. The Organization has not been informed by any tax authorities for any jurisdictions that any of its tax years are under examination as of December 31, 2017.

2. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Organization maintains cash balances at a financial institution located in Raleigh, North Carolina. Accounts at the institution are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At December 31, 2017, all deposit amounts were fully insured.
